Description

This Brokis Knot Small Sfera pendant lamp has a smoke grey mouth-blown glass. This lamp is 30 cm in diameter and 30 cm high. A handmade metal reflector is integrated top of the glass. The reflector is available in black matt, brass, stainless steel brushed and copper. The canopy has the same colour as the reflector. A special feature of the Knot lamps from Brokis is the cable which runs through the glass and ends in a knot at the lower end of the lamps. On request, the Knot Small Sfera smoke grey is available as not dimmable version. It is also offered with transparent, smoke brown or opaline glass. A larger version of the lamp is additionally available.
